Borrower’s Agreement:

By signing this application, I agree to comply with the rules and policies of the library and pay all fines, fees or damages associated with the materials checked out on my library card. I am responsible for the selection of materials charged to this card. Parents are expected to be aware of what their children check out and guide them in their selection. If the child is left unattended in the library, I understand the library is not liable or responsible for any accident or injury to the child. It is not the responsibility of the library staff to ensure that children remain inside the library.

DVDs and CDs checked out in my name will not be electronically duplicated. Violations will cancel my privileges to checkout DVDs or CDs. DVDs and CDs will not be used for commercial/theatrical distribution or public broadcast including any exhibition in any public meetings (schools, daycare, churches, etc.). I am responsible for any legal actions resulting from violations. Keller Public Library is not responsible for any damages incurred to my personal equipment or electrical systems or for damages to my personal property while borrowed items are in use.

I agree to comply with the library computer policies, and understand the library has open access to the Internet and does not filter its content. It is the responsibility of the parent or guardian to monitor their children’s access to the contents of the Internet. Computer privileges will be revoked if the library computer policies are violated.
